INTRO FOR TRANSFORM YOUR FEAR INTO FREEDOM:

You are all in for a treat today as we discuss How to Overcome Fear and Get What You Want! Susan Bock made the shift from corporate America to entrepreneurship which taught her how to do just that. Susan turned inward to discover her authentic purpose and took with her the knowledge gained from working with companies like American Express and the international ad agency, Bates Worldwide to become what her clients now describe her as a “True Leader and Life-Changer!”

Susan asks the right questions to help her clients explore ways to powerfully access their gifts, their beliefs, and their purpose. As she learned for herself, she guides others to face their fears and become their own best friend, two very key attributes for real success. Through her work with women, Susan lives her authentic purpose by helping others live the life of their dreams from the inside out!
